CO-OPERATIVE

EVANGELISTIC MEETING CLOSED

About 400 Persons Signed the Card.

I Desire Henceforth to Live a

The meeting which began at the First Presbyterian church on the 18th inst., conducted by Rev. W. E. Biederwolf, of Indiana, closed on the 29th inst., after being in progress eleven days, resulting in nearly four hundred persons signing a card indicating that they desired to live christian lives. The greater part of this number were persons whose names were on the church rolls, and is evidence that the church people have a desire to be right before God. With the churches thoroughly consecrated to their work the strongholds of sin can not stand. It is really encouraging to see christian people rallying to their standards and had Mr. Biederwolf accomplished nothing more, his would have been a great work. Mr. Biederwolf is a young man, 28 years old, an earnest worker, fluent and fogethile, and while he ly consecrated to their work the and forcible, and while he came without an established name with which to draw, his earnest, pathetic, soul-stirring appeals brought a large hearing, and at his closing exercises the Opera House was not large enough to accommodate the

His meetings for Sunday School orkers, Sunday School schollars workers, Sunday Senool schollars and men only were truly beneficial, the at these meetings seed were sown which will bring forth fruit many days to come. All christ-ians rejoice that Mr. Biederwolf was directed to this place, and their best wishes and prayers will follow him in other fields of labor.

him in other fields of labor.

We can not close this notice without saying that much of the success of this meeting was due to the labors of Rev. A. J. Arrick, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, his congregation and the prayers and co-operation of members of the other churches of our city. Mr. Allison, conducted the singing, and from the very be-ginning had a large choir under his charge, will not be forgotten as a sweet spirited singer and who added much to the delightful

As a result of these series of meetings, there were on Sunday three additions to the Baptist Church, ten'to the First Presbyteron Sunday Church and eighteen to the athern Presbyterian Church.

Into the Ministry.

Judge D. B. Garrison, who lived here some years since and who has a host of warm friends and ardent admirers among us is now located at Col-fax, Washington. Since Mr. Garrison left us he has entered the ministry. As an evidence that he is doing some excellent work we clip the following from a letter written by one of his congregation to the Pacac Christian.

congregation to the Pacfe Christian. The writer says:

"The church, under the wise management of Bro. D. B. Garrison, with the hearty co-operation of the members, is steadily growing in numbers and in grace. We have for some time been learning more and more about true Christian love; and in our applying it constantly to our every plying it constantly to our every action, we have either converted the old time complainers or made com munion so sweet that they were loth to seek a battlefield elsewhere. For some time every branch of the church has glided tranquilly on to the glory-tying of God and the strengthening of the members. We are preparing to observe Mission Day as a solemn co-casion, as it is to obey one of the foremost commandments or Christ, "Love thy neighbor as thysclif." We demand a share of the harvests from our rented lauds: so does God, de-our rented lauds: so does God, deour rented lands; so does God de-mand just a little from the abundance which we receive from His hand. And we will try to pay this honest

The Time For Building

Up the system is at this season. Up the system is at this season. The cold weather has made unusual drains upon the vital forces. The blood has become impoverished and impure, and all the functions of the body suffer in consequence. "Blind Boone" will appear at the Opera House this evening; it will be a rare musical treat. The following notice is clipped from the Frankfort (Ky.) Daily Capital of March 24th:
"An unusually good house was out last night to hear 'Blind Boone," and every man, woman and child there came away personucing the entertainment "magnificent." Compete at judges say that no greater musical prolley or planist, blind or otherwise was ever seen in this section.

The local branch of the W, C. T. U. will meet at the First Presbyterian church Thursday (April 2) at 3 p. m. A full attendance of the membership is requested.

Our Next Congressman.

The Democrats of this district will be called upon soon to select their candidate to be voted for mext. November as Congressman from this district. Already several have offered themselves for the position and the prospects seem to be fair for full field.

Some of these have announced their position on the money question and others have prudently refrained from giving expression to their views.

So far as the ADVOCATE is copies money, that would not mean whom the Democrats name as their nominee shall favor a single standard, but if in their wisdom they find it expedient to name a dimetalist, it shall as cheerfully support him as if he was the man of its choice.

There is danger of our losing sight of other and even more important issues in the wild contest that is now being waged between he extremists of the free silver and gold forces. In the heat of debate much is being said on both sides of this question that is not only untrue, but is calculated to do the party an injury that it will take many years to repair. The gold standard advocates are not all their even was dispensed with. A new and was dispensed with. A new and the port of the content of the c

Let us improve the streets and build new ones and open out and extend those we have. One can't ride 400 yards from the Court House without eturning on the same turnpike,—with width of about 30 feet—and no chance to construct sidewalks with out condemning land to place them or out condemning land to place them on, and for the city to get a sidewalk in any direction along these highways means a suit by the city. The Pikes are owned by the various Corporations that built them with their right of way. Let us be independant of them make them pay the taxes cen all the roads in the city; open up some new streets and give the city a chance to grow. We would suggest the extension. grow. We would suggest the extention of Sycamore street both north and south. Run a street from the Electric Light Plant intersecting with Electric Light Plant intersecting with the southern extension of Sycamore and continuing to the intersection of an extension of Maysville street on the south, thence to the Carmargo pike, thence to a point on the Coal Road, thence Northwardly to the Spen-cer nike immediately war of the Carcer pike immediately east of the Cem in the Egyptian expedition up the Nile, and Paris is excited with all sorts of rumors. It is reported dirt road, thence in the same direction of London will be recalled, and numberous other sensational things are said to be about to happen.

It is said that the Populists and Republicans in Texas have a more ment on foot by which they hope to exputure the State this year. The Republicans have made a fusion proposition to the Populists by which the Populists are to place southwardly to the Grassy Lick pike, thence south through the property of O. Laughlin to Lexington pike, thence south through the property of Judge Peters and others to the newly constructed road of J. M. intersecting with the southern exten sion of Sycamere street. An improvement of this kind would be immensely and immeasurably bene-ficial to the city, would open up terri-tory to persons who are anxious to buy lots and acreage property and enable them to buy a lot and build a house at a price they now have to pa for a vacant lot on some outside 8x10 turnpike road. Make this road 50 feet wide and establish a grade, so if any one desired to buy he would know the grade and when the street was sufficiently built, up grade and macabanize the street. William B. Walker, a gentleman who moved from the Mississippi Valley last fall to settle in Seattle, and has offices in the Bailey building, told a story sesterday of an acquaintance of his whose experiences in South Africa are of a rather romantic character. Early in the 50's Henry Moore lived near Corinth, Miss., and was a shiftless sort of a fellow. He gather-decourage enought to shift from theres, however, and climbing on the end of a railroad trail managed to ride blind thowever, and climbing on the end of a railroad train managed to ride blind buggage to Denver. He spent sonse time in Colorado, then drifted to the Arizona gold fields, lounging in the evertasting sunshine of Mexico for a while, and one day found himself at Galveston. There he drifted on board a sailing ship, and the ship drifted him to the eastern coast or Africa. Here he found there was gold to be had without the digging. When the ship got to Liverpool he spent still his wages in trinkets and worked his way back to Africa on another ship. Hie exploits from the time he landed the second time throw those of Live

Nothing Like Asking.

"I was on a stage that runs up through Nopa county," said Atforney Martin Stevens, "when I passed a farmhouse, with a half dozen boys playing about the yard. Outside the gate were a half dozen fat pigs, with tin cans tied to their stubby tails. The cans were filled with rocks and ratified like cowhells every time a pig moved. The porkers stood glaring at each other while trying to make up their minds whether to run and squeal or stand still and grunt.

"Why do they put weights on the pigs tails" inquired a young Englishman who was going up into Lake county to learn ranching.

"To keep 'em from runnin all the fat off themselves' explained the stage driver.

Humanity as an Investment.
Animals are still certelly tortured on board the cuttle ships plying between Ireland and English ports.
They roll about in bad weather and are maimed or trampled to death, they get blinded with the fumes of their own exhalations, and the damage done to them as market produce entails a loss of £500,000 a year. The American shippers make humanity a part of the investment and land their cattle in excellent condition.—London News.
